

ANTH 3175/5175 - SS1

Field School in Historical Archaeology

Bath State Historic Site

Bath was founded in 1705 and was North Carolina's first town and port of entry. This summer's dig will focus on the Palmer-Marsh house, Bath's oldest and in the colonial period its largest residence.

Course: ANTH 3175 (undergrad)/ANTH 5175 (grad) 6 semester credit hours, 1st Summer Session (May 16 – June 20) We will be leaving campus at 8am and returning by 4pm, Monday thru Friday.

Estimated tuition cost – in-state $1,226 out of state $5,296

- Faculty and Inquiries: Charles R. Ewen, Professor, Department of Anthropology, 267 Flanagan 252-328-9454, ewenc@ecu.edu