

EVENTS

October 12 - "Arch in the Park" Public Archaeology Day

11:00am-2:00pm, Pullen Park
408 Ashe Avenue, Raleigh

Learn about how we do archaeology, why it is important, and how to get involved in the field with engaging hands-on activities!

October 18 - Perspectives of Women in NC Archaeology

3:00pm-4:30pm, NC Museum of History
5 East Edenton Street, Raleigh

Join us as we host a panel of NC female archaeologists in the private and public sectors to discuss their diverse experiences in the field.

October 18 - Archaeological Meet & Eat

5:00pm-7:00pm, North Street Beer Station
521 W North Street, Raleigh

Get to know your state archaeologists and colleagues while enjoying some delicious food in a fun and laid-back atmosphere!

Archaeologists and historians have been searching for Virginia Dare and her colony for centuries. Although we only have a brief snapshot of her life, the mystery surrounding their fate has become larger than life, and this child an icon of North Carolina history. Virginia has sparked international collaborative research among professionals and the public alike.

Flickr: Beth MS27

Join the OSA this October in honoring the contributions of women, like Virginia Dare, to North Carolina archaeology and history. All events are free and open to the public!

NORTH CAROLINA
OFFICE OF STATE ARCHAEOLOGY
2019 ARCHAEOLOGY MONTH

TROWEL BLAZERS

WOMEN MAKING HISTORY

For more information visit archaeology.ncdcr.gov

@ncarchaeology
@roanokeislandfestivalpark

@ncarchaeology
@roanokeisland

"In the minds of many, she has become the symbol of new beginnings, of promise and of hope. She's a symbol of adventure and bravery."

~ Donald W. Patterson on Virginia Dare's legacy